From France.

We have been favored with Paris Pa pers of Nov. 21, inclusive, brought by the ship Adelaide, at Salem, from Havre; and have received from our correspondents at Havre, the Commercial Papers of that place to the 22d of Nov.
A French frigate from Riga for Bor deaux, was off the British coast Nov. 16, made a signal of distress, and contained a pilot.

A letter from Amsterdam, Nov. 16, in the Paris papers, mentioning the price of stocks &c. says:—The United States of America, enjoy a solid credit among our speculators, thanks to the constant in creasing prosperity of that country, espe cially since the treaty between that na tion and Russia. Its funds are the highest on our exchange, except those of Prussia.
The United States borrowed here 59 mil lions of florins to pay the French Govern ment for the cession of Louisiana. This stock was at first at par, but it fell dur ing the war between the United States and England, to 84; but the interest was always punctually paid; and it is now at 99.

A letter from Calais, Nov. 17, says:
—the wind continues to blow from the North West, incessantly. Since the 9th last no packet boat has sailed for Eng

NEW YORK, Jan 17.
Captain Felt, has arrived at Salem, on Havre do Grace, and brings Paris pa pers to the 21st Nov. and letters from Havre, to the 23d. Among the articles trans mitted, we observe the following, which are of later date than our previous foreign accounts.

Two persons, of a religious order, arrived at Rome from Canton, have but some particulars relative to the respec tion which has produced the death of the Emperor of China, King Kie Kie September 3, 1815. The prince was thrown by the Guards of his Palace, a consequence of a conspiracy, conducted as they say, by a female, and which ap pears to have arisen in the sentiments pronounced by the Emperor, in relation to some affairs of religion. In consequence of this, many English merchants had left Canton.

An intelligent French merchant in the city, informs us that the quotation of prices in France, which we have copied from the Boston papers is erroneous, and leads to mislead. The following obser vations and quotations, from his corre spondent at Havre, may be depended on for accuracy.

Havre, 23d Nov. 1816.
"Cottons continue in a situation of the most perfect calm; and since the beginning of the month, the total of the sales has not exceeded 150 bales of Geor gia and New-Orleans cotton. Holders seem inclined to keep their stocks un hand; but this arises in fact more from the difficulty of sale than from any favor able prospect. It would appear by the letters from New York, that the distress of the season has not the crop un propitious appearance, and depreciated the quality of the cotton; but this tene ment is fully contradicted by the com don up to the 16th October, which gives us to understand that the crop will be very abundant. Another and more prin cipal cause of present for the depression in an article which is generally so cor rent, is the high price of provisions. It may be in fine observed, that the man ufactures in France, England, and every where else, are literally standing still.

"Rice maintains its full consequence, and a though like all articles of provision, liable to fluctuate, wears the appearance of continuing a most important com modity. We are still without arrivals, and the price is quoted from Paris at 50 a 54 per kil. We ground our favorable opin ion of this article upon the scarcity of cotton. Our government has commenced the importation of grain, and the econ 4 American Flour is much sought after at present 62 1/2 per bbl.

Sugars increase daily in favor, and purchases succeed each other with rapid-ty. During the last week more than 1000 hds were bought by our refiners and speculators, and we certainly think the late disasters at Martinique and Guadalupe, which appear to have been very great, will be a grand stimulus to further speculation.
Office goes off with the same routine of activity: fine and middling qualities are bought with great avidity, and we may also add that every parcel offered for sale this week was immediately disposed of. In Paris the same demand exists.
In as much as we have had some arrivals which have not tended to animate the market: prices however appear to be steadily again at 75 a 78 duty paid.
As we anticipated some purchases of tobacco have been made for exportation and it is probable the movement in this shape will soon become more important than we expected at the period of our last prices. The first sale consisted of 110 hds of Kentucky at 103 1/2 per 50 kls and the second of 290 do Virginias at particulars asked for. The Regie has not commenced supplying itself, but will begin the course of next month.
In consequence of some large arrivals here and at Havre, has been since the last few days on the decline, and purchases have been made up delivery at 73 1/2 the duty paid per 50 kls for good and merchantable quality or some and some indur. We do not think the article will go lower; on the contrary it is very probable it will soon look up again, for it is stated from England that the supply this year will fall short about 25 or 30,000 casks which is an important deficiency.
Oil, whale and cod, is still in gratifying request at staunch prices and must go higher in consequence of the determination of the budget to establish a fresh duty of excise upon the consumption.
Hides are rather heavy but Buenos Ayres of fine description cannot be contracted for lower than 20.
Pimento, Cloves, Nutmegs and Ci-nnon, remain scarce, and would meet a ready sale.
The woods are in the same state of dead calm.
Lard is inactive, and must continue so as long as the manufactures remain in their present state.

The Life of Patrick Henry.
PROPOSAL
By James W. Wirt, of Philadelphia, for publishing by Subscription,
THE LIFE OF
The late Patrick Henry,
Containing many of his Speeches, &c.
Embellished with a Likeness: By Wm.
Wirt, Esq. of Richmond. (Va.)
Extract from the Post Office for August, 1815.
It is not without a sentiment of sincere gratification that we witness, in the following proposal, arrangements making by a competent hand, to do justice to the character of one of the most worthy and distinguished of our countrymen. As a statesman, a civilian, an orator and a patriot, Patrick Henry was entitled to stand in the foremost rank: Nor do his merits claim an inferior station as a firm, an honest, and an honorable man. He was one of those worthies on whose purity suspicion could never fix a stain.
If nature did much for Mr. Henry's character while living, accident has not been wanting in its favor: his posthu-mous fame: for to have found such a biographer as Mr. Wirt, so competent as a writer, and so peculiarly well qualified in every moral relation, is not the least fortunate incident in his history.
In Mr. Wirt's Life of Patrick Henry
we are irresistibly impelled to expect much: the materials being excellent, and in great abundance, and the writer able and devoted to his subject. Nor do we think that the public will run any risk of being disappointed by bearing us company in our high expectations. We hope, and, indeed, have no doubt, that the work will receive a liberal patronage.
CONDITIONS.
The work will be printed on a fine paper, in one octavo volume, and will contain from 350 to 400 pages.
It will be delivered to subscribers, in good call binding, at three dollars per copy. The price to non-subscribers will be three dollars and fifty cents.
Subscriptions are received by

ALEXANDRIA. TUESDAY, JANUARY 21.

FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT AT WASHINGTON.

January 15.

It is inconceivable what a torrent of anomalous matter has been poured forth upon the house of representatives in the course of the discussion upon this wayward bill for repealing the compensation law—and which might without much impropriety be intitled a bill to consolidate and give legislative form to the transient clamours of the demagogues of the United States. This day when the lists were opened, Mr. Grosvenor moved to fill the blank which had, as I informed you in my last, been left in the bill by the rejection of "six," with ten dollars as the daily allowance, or as the pedantry of the day delights to call it, the per diem, as who should say, booh! I understand latin!
The first who rose in opposition to this proposition, was Mr. William of N. Carolina, who tho' one of the most promising of our young crop of politicians, and possessed of an excellent understanding, and I do believe of a heart no worse, both of which will show themselves when the summers of experience shall have matured their fruit.—Yet being from the florid robustness of youth, more susceptible of epidemical infections, has caught a slight share of the populomania, and after giving his reasons for having opposed the compensation law, last session, declared that he had now a more cogent reason than any of them, namely the general voice of the people. Mr.
Reynolds in lengthy speech of marvellous delectability, their enjoyment whereof the house did frequently testify by loud exclamations, declared his preference of eight dollars to all other sums; after which Mr. Mills in a very handsome speech, delivered his opinion on the subject, in which he considered the great fundamental reason in favour of the compensation law of fast session, as universally admitted, namely the inadequacy of the compensation, and then proceeded to examine the only reason that had been offered on the other side, namely the voice of the people. In doing this he descended on the instructions of the legislature of his own state and as a proof of the reasonableness and sincerity of their instructions, stated that one of that body whose conscience and patriotism were quite outraged at members of congress getting 1500 dollars a year for his arduous services here, and neglect of his own concerns, while he himself received 5000 for doing nothing.—Mr. Comar of Massachusetts, who did Mr. Burke the honour to inveigh against him the day before, now rose, and by way of showing the inconsistency of Mr.
Calhoun, asked him was not in favour of the war, and did he not urge its being popular as one of his arguments in favour of it.
To which Mr. Calhoun answered that the cases were totally distinct.
Since the physical force of the people being as much as powder and ball, necessary to the operations of war, their willingness to co-operate was an argument so far in its favor.
And here Mr. Hubert interposed, and asked Mr. Comar, whether he did not know that the people of his own state, Massachusetts, and its legislature, were one and all opposed to the war, and how he could reconcile to his doctrine of obeying the will of constituents, his having voted for that war in every stage of it? To this Mr.
Comar answered, that he then voted as a citizen of the United States.— And pray, said Mr. Hubert, in reply, is or is not the honorable gentleman now a citizen of the United States? The other was silent. The question on Ten was then taken by ayes and noes, when there were 33 ayes and 134 noes. So it was rejected.
Mr. Culpepper then moved to fill the blank with Nine dollars, which was by ayes and noes rejected, 123 noes to 43 ayes. Mr. T. Wilson then proposed the insertion of Eight. This was supported on the grounds of calculation and justice by Mr. Pitkin and by Mr. Woodward who illustrated the subject by some matters of fact, for the truth of which he pledged himself. One of those people whose voice some gentlemen would make to govern Congress, declared that he would allow no more than two dollars a day.
He was a shoemaker who earned only a dollar a day and shaped his ideas accordingly. Another man got an almanac for the purpose of seeing whether the dog days were therein, and not being able to find them, positively insisted that Congress had, for their own purposes, ordered the dog days to be struck out of the year.

Mr. Pickens said he would vote for eight, and a Mr. Tyler, of Virginia, made a long speech in favor of Instructions, and was answered by Mr.
Grosvenor in a speech of superior excellence, which will not for a long time be forgotten; when the house adjourned.

Legislative Munificence.—The Maryland House of Delegates have passed a Resolution, granting the sum of Thirty Thousand Dollars to the Hospital at Baltimore. The Baltimore Gazette concludes an article on this subject with the following pertinent remark—"It is by such acts that legislators entitle themselves to the thanks and gratitude of their constituents."

Extract of a letter from Falmouth, January 24, 1816, to a gentleman in Baltimore.

"Pimento is very scarce: the crop throughout the island has failed. The article is a safe one to speculate on, as there is not sufficient in the island to overstock your market."

Richmond, Jan. 18.

The Senate were engaged on Thursday and yesterday on the bill, establishing sundry new banks. For the first time these three years, as we understand, they were in committee upon this subject. Several amendments were proposed to the bill by the select committee, to whom it was referred, and several in the committee of the whole. But no particular proposition is yet decided, which determines the fate of the bill. And it is premature for us to express any anticipations of the measure. It is a most important question and we hope it will be materially deliberated, before it be finally decided.

New-York, January 18.

We have, more than once, heard with great satisfaction, that Commodore Chauncey loses no opportunity of affording relief to American vessels in the Mediterranean. In a recent instance, a Baltimore brig wanted a mast, which could not be procured at Gibraltar. In twenty four hours she was not only supplied by Commodore Chauncey, but completely fitted for sea by the generous crew of the Washington.

In other instances, during a calm in the Bay, the Commodore has sent his boats to tow vessels to sea, and rendering other essential service to the commerce of his country. In his promptness on such occasions, we lose sight of the duty which he discharges, and view it as acts of generosity.

Thursday Noon.

FIRE.—About 11 o'clock a fire broke out in the loft of the brewery of Mr.
Mounsey and Son, in Elizabeth street, supposed to have been the work of an incendiary, as there had been no fire there for several days, and no person within the brew house later than six o'clock in the evening. Mr. M. we are sorry to learn, has lost in property 50,000 dollars.
No insurance having been made on his premises.

Besides the brewery, the malting house, with an adjoining dwelling, belonging to Mr. Andrew Morris & Son; the cordial distillery of Mr. J. Dickson and a chocolate manufactory of Mr. Frederick Shouard, were also laid in ashes.
It may be observed, that this fire literally burnt out, as from the want of water it was not in the power of our able engineers to quench it. The rain water cisterns were dry and the city wells afforded but little water. It has often been observed that our wells are never dug deep enough. The corporation ought to take a very serious notice of this fact.
Had the wind been high, the conflagration would have been most awful in its effects.

The Life of Patrick Henry.
PROPOSAL
By James W. Wirt, of Philadelphia, for
publishing by Subscription,
The late Patrick Henry,
Containing many of his Speeches, &c.
Embellished with a Likeness: By Wm.
Extract from the Post Office for August, 1815.
It is not without a sentiment of sin-
statesman, a civilian, an orator and a patriot, Patrick Henry was entitled to stand
in the foremost rank: Nor do his merits
est, and an honorable man. He was
suspicion could never fix a stain.
been wanting in its favor: his posthu-
fortunate incident in his history.
much: the materials being excellent, and
in our high expectations. We hope,
work will receive a liberal patronage.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

BOOKSELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PATENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46 Maiden Lane, N. York.
A FRESH SUPPLY
Of the following genuine Medicines.
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended.

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason to be confident, that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration, and thereby prevent colds which is so often the fatal consequence. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

HAMILTON'S WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions or flatulency in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and perfectly inoffensive, and is also mild in its operation, cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humors and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terebrator, or large round worm; the Ascarides, or small man-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Tænia, or tape-worm; so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fecal stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face coated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chuint—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it is otherwise the mildest and most eartain remedy known, and has restored youth and strength a great number, when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases. Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthmatic cough, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurf, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth, and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which, suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication, or any other destructive intemperance, the unskillful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

Hahn's true & genuine Gouty Corn Plaster.

ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December, 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 50 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property.
